

Together, focusing on LGPS stakeholders

Conference agenda

-
- 10:30 Registration, tea/coffee

-
- 11:00 The big picture: focusing on stakeholders
-
- Robbie McInroy

-
- 11:15 Employers and the LGPS: balancing stability, risk and stakeholder needs
-
- How can the scheme support employers and their stakeholders amid evolving risks, government influence and the 2025 valuation?
-
- Rob Bilton and Tom Hoare

-
- 11:50 30 years on from Nolan: standards in public life and the LGPS
-
- Exploring how the Nolan Principles can strengthen public confidence and support LGPS stakeholders.
-
- Ian Colvin and Kate Dickson

-
- 12:20 Lunch

-
- 13:30 Fiduciary duty in practice
-
- Being an LGPS officer is all about making, and advising others to make, difficult decisions. We'll take a look at fiduciary duty in a practical context.
-
- Susan Black, Eversheds and guests

-
- 14:05 People, community & economy: opportunities through local investment
-
- Examining the role of LGPS funds in supporting local communities and economies through strategic local investment.
-
- Iain Campbell plus guest

-
- 14:35 Tea/coffee break

-
- 15:00 Panel discussion: Bridging the gap – how funds can support their members
-
- Exploring how funds can use measures such as Gender Pensions Gap and Adequacy to enhance support and outcomes for members.
-
- Greer Flanagan plus industry experts

-
- 15:35 Designing for humans: how design thinking enhances the stakeholder experience
-
- Looking at how innovative design practices can improve the user experience for LGPS stakeholders.
-
- Chris Varley and technology

-
- 16:05 Closing remarks

-
- 16:15 Drinks and networking